Adventure Time

The Boyne Valley – Birthplace of Ireland's Ancient East is the perfect place to kick-start your family adventure! Fancy kayaking down the Boyne or zip lining through the trees? Make a splash down a thrilling waterslide flume or test your nerve on a white-knuckle rollercoaster ride. If you've ever wondered what the Boyne Valley looked like from the top of the tallest tree now is your time to find out? Trust us, you will not be disappointed when you take the time to explore the Boyne Valley.

The Boyne Valley offers wonderful living history and a wealth of invigorating leisure activities which sit effortlessly side by side. You can literally float through time on a guided river tour where you truly experience the River Boyne with its rich heritage and lush green landscapes. What could be more relaxing than to sit back and listen to the stories of Ireland's Ancient East and get a deeper understanding of why the first settlers choose the Boyne Valley for their adventures over 5,000 yrs ago.

For those who like more leisurely pastimes, there are plenty of gentle activities tailor made for you – from woodland trails to explore to fishing and swimming. Visit the farm, learn a traditional skill, try your hand at Irish céilí dancing or see what it's like to be a medieval knight.
