Birthplace of Ireland's Ancient East

IRELAND'S ANCIENT EAST®
Wander Through Time

discoverboynevalley.ie

“The Boyne is not a showy river. It rises in County Kildare and flows gently and majestically through County Meath and joins the sea at Drogheda in County Louth some 112 kilometres later. It has none of the razzmatazz of its sister, the Shannon. It’s neither the longest river in Ireland, nor does it have the greatest flow. What it does have, and by the gallon, is history.

In fact, the Boyne Valley is like a time capsule. Travel along it and you travel through millennia of Irish history, from passage tombs that pre-date the Pyramids, to the Hill of Tara, seat of the High Kings of Ireland, all the way to the home of the First World War poet Francis Ledwidge in Slane. It’s the Irish equivalent of Egypt’s Valley of the Kings. And you can choose to explore it by car, bicycle, kayak, or by strolling along its banks and the towpaths of the navigation canals that run alongside from Navan to Oldbridge.”

The Birthplace of Ireland's Ancient East

Your journey of discovery
starts here

To tell the story of Ireland's Ancient East we must start at the beginning... 5,000 years ago in the Boyne Valley.

We present to you 5,000 years of Europe's history in a lush green, compact and accessible landscape...

It's easy to take it all in,
To go at your own pace,
To dip in or delve in,
To meet great people and listen to stories told
by the greatest storytellers in the world,
Take the time to experience the Boyne Valley,
a unique and diverse place that has inspired for thousands of years and the birthplace of Ireland's Ancient East.

Discover tombs older than the pyramids at Brú na Bóinne and the birthplace of Samhain on the Hill of Tlachtga. Be moved at monasteries such as Mellifont Abbey, explore a medieval armoury at Trim Visitor Centre, brave a battle-ground at the famous Battle of Boyne or test your own courage on the legendary Cú Chulainn rollercoaster at Tayto Park. Discover the stories of a time of contrasts, the time of empire, rebellion, innovation and industry.

The spirit of the past is wonderfully alive in the Boyne Valley today. It is full of mystery and excitement, humour and adventure.

Your tour through Ireland's Ancient East will be an experience in living history in a special place where magical things happen.

Enjoy!

Discover Boyne Valley Flavours

Ireland's Foodie Destination 2017 and 2018 Runner-up
The Boyne Valley Region was named one of the World's Best Food Destinations in 2019 by National Geographic Traveller UK

Discover Boyne Valley Flavours Foodie Destination 2017 and 2018 Runner-Up

2019 brings to you the most exceptional choice of food tourism experience we've ever had! The Boyne Valley region continues to be recognised as one of Ireland's leading food tourism destinations and has been awarded Runner Up for Foodie Destinations 2017 and 2018, having won the overall award in 2016.

The Boyne Valley is home to a bountiful supply of passionate farmers, food and drinks producers, chefs and eateries whose passion is to bring the flavours of our landscape to your table. To understand, you must experience. Now in its 6th year, the Boyne Valley Food Series is a calendar of events which celebrates our land, our heritage, our people, and of course our produce. Our unique, experience lead events will immerse you in the food and drinks culture of the Boyne Valley region. From guided food tours and weekend farm retreats to themed events and street feasts, there is something for everyone on the family to enjoy. Our events schedule is nearly year round from February to December with additional festive events taking place for Halloween and Christmas.

Trad comes to Drogheda

a cultural extravaganza of Irish music, song and dance

Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann, organised by Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann is the largest traditional music festival in the world with over 500,000 people attending the annual event. It celebrates all that is truly valued in Irish culture, language, music, song, dance, and heritage.

History was made in Drogheda in August 2018 when the Fleadh came to the Boyne Valley for the first time. The festival returns to Drogheda in 2019 to once again celebrate Ireland's 'ceoil agus craic' (music and fun).

Spirits of Meath Halloween Festival

According to legend, Samhain, the ancient Celtic Festival that we now call Halloween, originated here in Co. Meath in the Boyne Valley more than 3,000 years ago.

Samhain was a fusion of pagan and Christian beliefs, said to mark the harvest and the end of the old Celtic year and the beginning of the New Year, and where the spirits of the dead passed on to the next world, invoking the Christian idea of resurrection too.

According to one of the early chroniclers of Ireland, the Samhain festival began on top of the hill of Tlachtga, now called the Hill of Ward, one mile east of Athboy, Co. Meath. It was believed that Tlachtga was closely linked to the spirit world and it was from here that the sacred Samhain fire of the new year was lit and carried to seven other hills around the county including Tara, Loughcrew and then on to light up Ireland's Ancient East and beyond.

Recent archaeological excavations at Tlachtga suggest this ancient hill was indeed used for feasting and ceremonies, and to this day the Boyne Valley has remained the home of Halloween. Spine-tingling fun awaits for young and old alike in the Spirits of Meath festival, enter if you dare!

take a walk on the wild side

Gentle pathways to explore at leisure

A path well worn...

Visitors should respect the facilities, the flora and fauna, keep dogs under strict control and co-operate in keeping the areas free from litter, or if walking in a wooded area, refrain from lighting fires. Wear walking boots, bring rain gear and fluid. Leave only footprints and take only memories...

Apple Blossom Walk - Boyne Grove Fruit Farm

Heritage Walking Routes

Battle of the Boyne - Oldbridge Estate Walks

Over 5 km of scenic walks on the historic battle site, linking with adjacent Boyne Greenway and Boyne Canal Walk. Free of charge. Dogs must be on leads at all times. No bikes permitted on walks.

Boyne Ramparts Heritage Walk

This walk from Navan to Stackallen Bridge is 8km each way. Along this linear stretch there are interpretive panels providing interesting facts to help the walker enjoy the beauty of the Boyne Valley. Carpark located on the R153 in Navan.

Kells Girley Bog Eco Walk

3.5 mile waymarked National Loop covering forest and bogland located on the N52 to Mullingar just 5 km from Kells on the left hand side. The loop takes approximately 1 hr 30 mins and requires walking boots.

Trim Castle River Walk

This walk provides a glimpse of life in the middle ages in Trim. The walk is a linear walk commencing at Trim Castle and takes approximately 30 minutes along well marked pathways to Newtown.

Forest Walks

Loughcrew Cairns

There is a walk to Loughcrew Cairns and a guiding service for visits to the Cairns is available during the Summer months. Call 041 9880 300 for details or visit heritageireland.ie

Balrath Wood

Balrath Wood, located just off the N2 on the R153 for Navan, was once part of the Somerville estate. A good time to visit Balrath is in late Summer/early Autumn when there are plenty of leaves and some fruits /nuts on the trees and some wildflowers still in bloom. Spring and Summer are also good times, especially to see woodland wildflowers in their natural habitat.

Littlewood Forest, Slane

Located on the N2 Collon Road, 1 mile from Slane, provides a fantastic amenity for walkers. The forest covers 28 hectares (70 acres). Today it comprises a varied mix of conifer and broadleaved tree species. A series of directional posts and information panels detail the flora, fauna and history along the walk.

Mullaghmeen Forest

Situated 8 km from Oldcastle, Mullaghmeen has 1,000 acres of forest. Picnics can be enjoyed and there are long and short walks depending on level of fitness. Mullaghmeen Forest is a state forest and provides 14 miles of roadway for the walker. It leads to the highest point in County Westmeath (894ft.)

Canal Walks

Royal Canal Greenway

The Royal Canal Greenway will connect Dublin's Spencer Dock with Richmond Harbour in Longford, including Counties Kildare, Meath and Westmeath along the way. It will be the longest greenway in Ireland with 144km off road trail for walking and cycling. It passes through County Meath at Kilcock, Enfield, Moyvalley and near Longwood. Interesting features: Enfield Harbour and Moyvalley tree lined stretch. Take time to enjoy the beautiful sights along the Royal canal.

Walk & Cycle

Boyne Greenway Cycleway and Boardwalk

Phase 1 of the Greenway is a 1.9km long fully segregated walking and cycling facility which utilises sections of boardwalk to create a riverside resource connecting Oldbridge Estate to Drogheda's town centre, via the existing ramparts.

Bike Hire

Rock Farm Slane - Electric Bike Hire

Rock Farm Slane Electric Bikes are part of the Electric Escapes network and use the same high standard Kalkhoff electric bicycles to provide the longest range and safest travel throughout the Boyne Valley. We provide everything you need including a high-vis jacket and a helmet and self-guided routes. rockfarmslane.ie

Millmount

Folklore says that Amergin, the great poet and son of Mil is buried at Millmount. He is said to be the first Milesian to set foot in Ireland, on the banks of the Boyne, upon which he recited his famous poem. Millmount has had many incarnations throughout history. It is believed that there may have been a motte set up by Hugh de Lacy when granted the Lordship of Meath in 1172. The tower that graces Millmount today was built in the early nineteenth century to help protect the country from a potential invasion by Napoleon.

The Boyne Valley gives anglers of all disciplines some fantastic fishing opportunities to catch their target species of choice. The River Boyne and its many tributaries provide fly anglers with world class river fly fishing for wild brown trout from March to September and “Lough Style” fishing for brown trout is also available on the legendary Lough Sheelin. In addition to the trout fishing, it offers anglers some great salmon fishing opportunities on the River Boyne between Navan and Drogheda. Pike, coarse and sea angling are also available in the area all year round. The quality of the fishing experience is further enhanced by the beautiful scenery and the availability of professional angling services such as specialist accommodation, fishing guides, boat and tackle hire, angling tuition and tackle shops.

Angling for a catch

Angling Associations

The majority of game angling on the Boyne is controlled by angling associations and some by private fishery owners. Anglers wishing to fish for wild brown trout on an angling association water must obtain a permit from that association and fishing methods must be in accordance with the current rules and regulations of the association. Most associations support a policy of catch and release. When salmon fishing both a permit and a State licence is required. Salmon fishing is subject to the salmon and sea trout regulations which are renewed annually. For more information on game angling in the BoyneValley please visit fishinginireland.info

Trout and Salmon Fishing

The River Boyne and its tributaries are recognised as being among Ireland's best wild brown trout fisheries. Some of the best fishing in the Boyne Valley can be found on the River Boyne at Slane, Navan, Trim and Longwood. There is also excellent wild brown trout fishing on the Kells Blackwater, Stoneyford, Athboy, Enfield Blackwater and Deel Rivers. Top quality “Lough Style” fishing for brown trout is accessible as well on the legendary Lough Sheelin. Competitively priced day permits can be purchased for most waters and the best way to ensure you make the most of your fishing trip is to book an experienced angling guide. The best time of year for brown trout fishing is from May to September. Salmon fishing is easily accessed on the River Boyne between Navan and Drogheda and the best period is generally from the end of July to the end of September. Additional trout fishing in Co. Meath is available on the River Nanny around Duleek, at Lough Bracken near Drumconrath and at Rathbeggan Lakes near Dunshaughlin.

Coarse & Pike Angling

The Boyne Valley Fishery offers excellent opportunities for the coarse and pike angler especially around Collinstown and Delvin to the West and Enfield to the southwest. Drumconrath village in County Meath is surrounded by a number of small to medium sized lakes including Corstown Lake, Ballyhoe Lakes 1 and 2, Mentrim Lakes, Bracken Lake and Balrath Lake. The Royal Canal also provides great fishing and a number of competitions are held here each year. Coarse and pike fishing are available all year round. More information available at fishinginireland.info

Sea Angling

South of the mouth of the River Boyne, there are extensive beaches at Mornington, Bettystown and Laytown. The south beach at Laytown and the Boyne estuary are popular angling venues where bass, mullet, flounder, turbot, mackerel and sea trout can be caught. Evening and early morning tides can provide the best fishing opportunities. Best time of year: May to October.
